Through humor and honest sharing, Tiger McLuen will help all parents and caring adults think more intentionally about our roles in sharing faith with the next generation. Tiger has experience as both a youth worker and a parent—and he will use both perspectives to give helpful insights and ideas. Learn about the youth world, struggles with their growing independence and how the culture is shaping our parenting.

Dennis "Tiger" McLuen is the President of Youth Leadership Center for Youth and Family Ministry in Minneapolis. He is an adjunct instructor of youth ministries at Luther and Bethel Theological Seminaries. A veteran of over 30 years in youth ministry, Tiger is in constant demand as a speaker for youth gatherings and adults who work with youth. He is a dynamic speaker with the ability to unite humor and story. Tiger is married to Sue and is the father of 3 children – all who have survived adolescence!! He is also the author of "The Student Leadership Training Manual for Youth Workers" and numerous magazine articles.
